

Welcome to Cricket Camp!
9:15 am – 1:15 pm at the Alcott Center

We are so excited for camp to begin and can not wait for your child to be here. We have some fun activities planned and look forward to everyone making new friends. Each week we will do arts and crafts, songs and games, both inside and outside based on the weekly theme.

Cricket Camp will be in Room E, F or I at the Alcott Center.

- To help us prepare, please return the forms below at your earliest convenience. They can be returned at Meet and Greet, the Alcott Center front desk or Registration Drop Box, email to Diana@bgparks.org or in person on your child's first day.
- We hope that you and your child can attend Meet and Greet on Friday, June 11. Please drive around and park in the back of the Alcott building. The counselors will be outside on the playground towards the baseball field.

We split each group up into two to keep the number of people in attendance at one time to a minimum. Please note it is a just quick visit and one adult per child, please.

- MWF attendees – Children with last names A – KR: 9:30 – 10 am
- MWF attendees – Children with last names Ku – Z: 10 – 10:30 am
- Tue/Thu attendees – Children with last names A – Pe: 10:30 – 11 am
- Tue/Thu attendees – Children with last names Po - Z: 11 – 11:30 am
- A parent handbook is also available for this camp with our current procedures. If you have questions regarding it, please contact Diana@bgparks.org or 847.850.2111.
- There is a camp calendar also posted on the webpage.
- This camp information will be available on the Camp page at BGParks.org all summer.
- Children will need to bring a nut-free lunch each day. Please note that we are a nut safe environment to help protect our friends with known, and unknown allergies. Nuts and nut products (peanut butter, trail mix, granola containing nut products, peanut butter cups, etc.) are not permitted at camp. Thank you for helping us keep everyone safe.
- There is a list of items that we would like you to bring to camp at the end of this document.

The staff are looking forward to meeting the children!

Mrs. Weinstein is supervising this camp again as she has for many years! She is also one of our Preschool Teachers. There are several camp counselors that you will get to meet at the Meet and Greet.

We look forward to an exciting summer!
